Now that the word is out about this "rugged hill country in Southwest Kentucky" and everybody knows about the "backwoods justice" w. dispense around here, our next question is: Where do we go from here? The front page stories in the Memphis Press-Scimitar, the story in Newsweek, a weekly news-magazine, the editorials in the Hickman Courier and reprints and comments in various other publications have, as one person said, "put Hickman on the map." That it did indeed.

We have asked ourselves many times what the end result of the "expose" will be. It is possible that the next term of court in September will be watched with keen interest, and an "honest" jury will be as hard to find as the proverbial needle in the haystack. Juries in the past, according to the editorials published, have been weak-minded, easily influenced, fearful people who have held a gone-hog, far more important to the public interest than a gone-citizen. You remember, get three years... hog-stealers get three years... killers go scot free with a Circuit Court medal from the jury for bravery.

We sadly doubt the value of the extremely bad publicity that has been given this area and the aspersions that have been cast on the integrity of the 98 persons alone who served on the juries in the three cases referred to in the articles.

To refresh your memory the three cases in question cited as "backwoods justice" were:

The trial of Ida Davis, indicted for murder. The case resulted in a hung jury for lack of evidence presented to the jury and the case was subsequently dismissed for want of proof. I checked the jury list in the cases and found that the following conscientious, respectable and prominent people, whose reputations are well known to you and to me, served on the jury: They were: Lucian Iabell, Raymond Harrison, Maurice Bondurant, Mrs. Shaw, Arthur Rose, Jim Pursell, B. L. Austin, Herman Roberts, Horace Roper, Alvin Graham, Lloyd Call and E. D. Johnson, Jr.

The Dunagan trial. Father and son were indicted for the murder of a Hickman policeman and made no plea. The son was released and the elder Dunagan given two years. Members of the jury were: Hugh Swain, Fred Sawyer, Arlie Batts, A. M. Cruce, A. L. Cox, Bob Powell, Hubert Wilkins, A. E. Green, Merl Grissom, Aaron McGeough, R. H. Hewitt and Harold Hewitt.

The recent Patterson case. Mrs. Willie Mae Patterson was indicted for the shooting of her husband, which she admitted to which she pled self-defense. The trial resulted in a hung jury and continued to the next term of court. Members of the jury were: Hunter Whitesell, Alton Jeffers, Raymond Sloan, Mrs. J. H. Maddox, Louis T. Jones, Guy Duley, Carter Olive, Guy Upton, Carey Fields, Wilis Atteberry, Charles Burgess and Joe Bill Luten.

Knowing these people as we all do, do you think that any of them individually, or collectively could be bought, intimidated or coerced into handing down a verdict that in their conscience they know is wrong? That has been the impression left with people who do not know Fulton County and West Kentucky and it is a most unjust impression to give. There are probably less "killings" in all of West Kentucky than there are within three square miles of New York City. And we'd love for Newsweek and the Press-Scimitar to check that statement.

Not for one minute do we doubt the sincerity of Editor Ro Gardner whose editorials in the Hickman Courier and his subsequent tangle with the court, brought about the attention he received from the metropolitan press.

Members of the Fourth Estate admire a fellow worker who is outspoken and unafraid to voice his convictions. We've been "accused" of being such people ourselves, although our "courage" has not always been appreciated in some quarters. But be that as it may, the impressions left with newspaper readers in the Mid-South and in the Nation are not justified, for our court system in Fulton County is not unlike any other court (continued on page six)

Chamber Of Commerce Membership Drive Is Town-Building Plan

The membership drive for the current year in these towns "kicked off" with a Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting last Thursday. During the coming two weeks every business in both towns will be contacted for their membership -- to build up towns both economically and community-wise.

The guests at the dinner were Ben Little, Public Relations and Publicity Director, Martin Zook, director of Agriculture, and W. P. Brooks, Director of Membership of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce. In his talk to the members last Thursday night, Mr. Brooks offered some suggestions for the Chamber of Commerce to do to have Fulton "keep moving ahead as it should in the future." He complimented the program now under way of this Agriculture

COUNTY ROADS 3 TIMES BETTER NOW THAN DURING 1937

Combs Reveals Massive Program During 7 1/2 Years

More than 3 times as much highway construction has taken place in Fulton County during the administrations of Earle Clements and Lawrence Wetherby as during the administration of A. B. Chandler.

This was pointed out today by Combs for Governor Headquarters following a speech that Combs made in Lawrenceburg last week branding as "fantastic" the claims by Chandler that he "constructed more miles of highways than any other governor and that the last two administrations have done nothing about this important phase of state government."

Records of the Department of Highways in Frankfort show that 34,941 miles of highways were constructed in Fulton County during the Chandler administration at a cost of $349,068.94, the statement from Combs headquarters said.

This compares with 128,500 miles at a cost of $1,626,890.35 between Jan. 1, 1948 and June 1, 1955, according to a release from the Department of Highways made last week.

LOCAL COMMUNITY CONCERTS DEFERS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Board Members Meet To Discuss Future Of Group

At a meeting of the Community Concerts Association held Tuesday afternoon the board of directors went on record as deferring a membership campaign for this year. President Win Whitnell presided at the meeting.

For five years an important part of the cultural program of Fulton, the association has brought a large number of talented and accomplished artists to the city. The program has been designed to bring Carnegie Hall artists to the small communities at a small cost to the members. A membership drive has been held once a year to secure memberships.

It was the consensus of the members of the board of directors present that the membership drive be deferred until further action could be taken on the future of the organization.

A representative of the Community Concerts Association was in Fulton last Saturday conferring with the executive board of the organization.

REV. CHARLES ROE TO BE NEW PASTOR AT 1ST CHRISTIAN

Native Kentuckian To Come To Fulton In Middle July

Rev. Charles Roe, a native Kentuckian and now of Augusta, Georgia, has accepted the call of the First Christian Church to become their pastor here. Reverend Roe delivered the sermon at the church on Sunday and was enthusiastically received by the congregation.

The new pastor, who with his wife will arrive in Fulton sometime during July has been in Augusta for the past eight years and spent a similar period in Carrollton, Kentucky. He is a graduate of Transylvania College and College of the Bible in Lexington.

The Roes have three children, two of them living in Georgia and another in Texas. Reverend Roe fills the vacancy in the pulpit made by the resignation of Brother L. R. Still, who is now pastor of the Christian Church in Columbus, Mississippi.

Negro Protests Bearing By Local Police Officer On Sunday Nite

CANDIDATE ADAMS VISITS FULTON IN CAMPAIGN INTEREST

Prominent State Official Popular In Farm Circles

Coudedote PONE Ben S. Adams, Commissioner of Agriculture and a candidate for lieutenant-governor in the Democratic primaries in August was a visitor in Fulton Tuesday. Mr. Adams conferred with his local campaign managers and visited many of his Fulton friends.

Mr. Adams, a native of Hopkinsville, and popular in agricultural circles all over Kentucky said that he was most gratified with the response, his campaign is receiving all over the State. He reported that he has campaign managers in 89 counties of Kentucky and each of them was working diligently in the interest of his campaign.

In Fulton County Lucien Isbell and J. A. Willingham are co-chairmen for the Adams campaign. Both men are actively engaged in Farm Bureau work in West Kentucky and both are prominent in State circles of the organization.

Mr. Adams left Fulton Tuesday evening and proceeded on into eastern Kentucky, where he said, he has strong support.

DON HILL AWARDED PUBLIC IS INVITED CONTRACT AS LOW BIDDER ON SCHOOLS NEW MASONIC HALL

Terry-Norman, Carr Institute To Get Needed Repairs

A contract for the remodeling construction at Terry-Norman School and lighting fixtures at Carr Institute was awarded to Don Hill as the lowest bidder on the projects, Laurence Holland told the News Wednesday. Mr. Hill's bid was $15,912. The school board met in called session to open the bids.

Sub-contractors on the project will be Jones Plumbing and Heating Company of Fulton, Bishop and Vaughn, electricians of Union City and Carl Reed, painter of Fulton.

The work on the project will start as soon as possible with a completion date set at 75 days after the work begins.

SHADES OF FALL!

Applications are now being taken by the Kindergarten Committee of the Junior Woman's Club for entrance into the preschool class in the Fall. Mrs. Morgan Omar is chairman of the committee.

R. C. Waire, a Negro resident of south Fulton is protesting the severe beating he said he received at the hands of a Fulton policeman Sunday night in front of the Swift and Company plant. Waire was picked up late Sunday night as a suspect in a series of "peeping tom" incident in East Fulton.

Witnesses who saw Waire later said he received two cuts and other lacerations about the head, suffered from a hemorrhage of the eye and received a badly bruised place on his shoulder. Waire said that Officer Carmi Page beat him over the head with the butt of his pistol while officer E. W. Bethel sat in the police car near the plant.

The News learned that: Sunday night Mrs. Carmi Page and Mrs. E. W. Bethel were sitting on Mrs. Bethel's porch on Vine Street when they saw a Negro walk by the house and turn north on Maple Street.

Within a short time a 1939 Ford passed the house and the ladies remarked that the driver looked like the man who had just walked past the house. Officer Bethel had just driven up in his car and on hearing the remark said that the Negro was the "peeping tom" suspect that had been menacing East Fulton residents. He did not see the driver of the car, he said.

Bethel got in his car and picked up Mr. Page and together they trailed the auto to the Swift plant where it was parked waiting for a train to pass.

Waire told this story: Officer Page went to the car and told him to get out and used abusive language to him because of his (Waire's) alleged "peeping tom" activities. Waire told the officer that he knew nothing of any such charge and then Page dragged him out of the car and started hitting him over the head with the butt of his pistol. Waire said he kept protesting his innocence about the "peeping tom" charges.

Officer Page said that he asked Waire to get out of the car and when Waire refused Page attempted to get the Negro out of the car. Page said that it became necessary to subdue the Negro when he resisted arrest.

He was taken to the ladies and they said "they thought" it was the same man who had passed the house. They could make no positive identification.

(Officers Page and Bethel said that at first Waire denied he had been in the area and later admitted that he had been near the Gulf bulk plant in the vicinity of Vine and Maple.)

Waire said he was taken to the city jail where he was constantly jabbed in the stomach with a nightstick for a confession. He was jailed overnight on a charge of breach of the peace.

The officers said that the Negro fitted the description of the "peeping tom" who was seen at the David Homra home about two weeks ago. Mr. Homra said that Waire was not the Negro he saw near his home.

Monday morning Waire was released from the city jail and a trial will be held Thursday at two o'clock. Jerry Jones, acting as city attorney in the absence of James Warren will prosecute the case. Attorney Charles Fields will represent Waire.

Waire is an employee of the Jackson Cafe in Clinton.

REFERENDUM FOR WHEAT VOTING TO BE ON SATURDAY

Two-Thirds Of Farmers Must Vote On Ballot

E. W. Yates, chairman of Fulton County ASC committee, announced today that Fulton county farmers would go to the polls Saturday, June 25th, to vote on the national wheat referendum. Polling places are City Hall, Fulton, Kentucky, and Fulton County ASC office, Hickman, Kentucky. This is a very vital question for farmers to decide. Marketing Quotas have been proclaimed, for 1956, by the Secretary of Agriculture, as required by law. At least two-thirds of the eligible farmers voting, in the referendum, must approve marketing quotas before they will continue. The referendum will be conducted by the local men.

Any wheat producer in commercial wheat States who will be subject to marketing quotas is eligible to vote in the referendum. Farmers who have farm wheat allotments of 15 acres or less are eligible to vote if they will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in 1956.

Happy Chandler Has Six More Weeks To Make Promises and Already He's $57,000,000 Short Of Money Needed To Fulfill The Ones He's Made

Last week we took a little trip into the countryside around Cayce to get some pictures about the Chamber of Commerce's hog program and we stopped at Simpson's store at the crossroads and talked a little while there with some of the good folks who were sitting on the bench in front of the store.

Fellow sitting on that bench commented on the Combs sticker on the bumper of our car and that brought up a little friendly conversation. Happens that the fellow we did most of the talking with said he was for this fellow Happy Chandler and he told us why.

Said he: "Happy cut taxes when he was Governor; he's gonna cut taxes again; he's gonna get rid of all that extravagance in Frankfort, he's gonna build roads; he's gonna give more money for schools; he's gonna spend money to help us market our farm goods; he's gonna build more parks and take away the income tax and the blanket property assessments."

All right, that's fine but let's do some common horse figgering on how Mr. Chandler's gonna do it. Just plain figgering on the back of an old paper bag or a flour sack.

The present State budget is $81,000,000 and Happy says that's extravagant, but just to have some figures to work with we'll say that Happy keeps the present budget.

So we'll give Happy $81,000,000. We'll also give him an extra $60,000,000 from the road fund, which is a separate state account received from the tax on gasoline. That makes $141,000,000.

He says he will finance the minimum foundation for schools with no extra taxes. The school people are now getting $35,000,000 for schools and they want $25,000,000 more for the minimum foundation which Happy says he will give them. The old figure and the new figure totals $60,000,000.

So do this with the figures:

Total money	$141,000,000
Schools	60,000,000
Balance	81,000,000

With $81,000,000 Happy will build more roads since he says the present administration allowed them to deteriorate. That means, our friend at Cayce, "go to ruin." The present administration has been spending about $60,000,000 a year for roads.

If Happy just does as well as the present administration has done for roads, no more understand, he will have to spend $60,000,000. But Happy says the roads are in terrible shape, so undoubtedly he plans to do much more. Let's say he'll do twice as much.

So do this:

Balance	$81,000,000
Roads	$120,000,000
In the hole	$39,000,000

Now just doing two of the things he says he will do, with the same budget as now, Happy is in the hole $39,000,000 and remember there's not a State employee in Frankfort working on his school appropriations or his roads, or anywhere, not even $12,500 salary for himself and still he's $39,000,000 short.

Ok, so Happy thinks the State government is over-run with employees. The salary account, for all State employees, including the Governor is now $18,000,000. Happy says that's high. When he was Governor he operated the whole State on nearly that much, says he. (When Happy was Governor you could buy a loaf of bread for nine cents, try getting one now for less than 17 cents and that's a big bargain. You could, in 1937, feed, clothe and support a family of four for $125 a month. Try that today, Mr. Happy Chandler.)

But anyhow let's go back to the figures. Let's cut the State payroll $5,000,000. (Understand we'd not know how it can be done, nor does

Mr. Chandler, but just to make him Happy, let's cut it.) That leaves a State payroll of $13,000,000.

Figures again:

Deficit	$39,000,000
Salaries	$13,000,000

Short $52,000,000

Happy is going to expand the present State parks system. Let's say he'll do that (a statement which we doubt very much since he's promised more darned concessions to motel and restaurant owners than you can imagine.) Anyhow let's say he'll spend $5,000,000 on expanding State parks.

Here we go:

Shortage	52,000,000
Parks	5,000,000

Short $57,000,000

Now understand, good friend at Cayce, Happy's not going to have $81,000,000 coming in, because he's going to cut taxes but he's going to spend more money on everything from soup to nuts. So how, figgering with the nub of a pencil and a brown paper bag, is he going to do even what's being done now with his bank account running $57,000,000 in the red, just as a starter.

No more taxes . . . baloney. Minimum foundation with no new taxes . . . hogwash. Cut taxes . . . pipe dreams. More money for roads . . . day dreaming.

Any grocer who charges ninety-five cents for a pound of coffee; any banker who charges six per cent interest on money . . . any third grade student who can add two and two knows that Mr. Chandler is talking out of both sides of his mouth because he wants to be President of the United States . . . not Governor . . . more than anything in the world and he's using the people of the State of Kentucky to try to get him there.

Newsweek magazine said last week that Happy has said its in the stars for him to be President of the United States.

We keep remembering how right a school teacher was the other day when he said: If Happy Chandler is elected Governor one of two things will happen:

"The school teachers of Kentucky will be given the greatest kick in the teeth they ever had, or they'll be patted on the back and there'll be many more new taxes levied to make them happy." Happy knows that's true.

But Happy isn't thinking beyond August 6. After that he figures, if he's elected in August he might get elected Governor over a Republican candidate and we'll be stuck with him for as long as it takes him to get a better job, using the Governor's office as a stepping off place.

But just one tiny little example of Happy's double-talking to the school teachers alone. Only last week in the Louisville Courier-Journal he said: "I can finance the minimum foundation program for schools with no additional taxes."

Malcolm Patterson quoted Happy in the Paducah Sun-Democrat Sunday as having said: He's fully convinced (Happy is) the people . . . are willing to bear the necessary tax burden to provide an adequate and efficient system of public education in Kentucky." Yes, he's said both things.

Among items we have not included in Happy's proposed plan to cut taxes and still give the people more services are: A teacher retirement program estimated at $600,000 the first year, an additional million or more for the other years; establishment of an Agricultural and Research Marketing Board, separate from the present Agricultural Board; $250,000 each year for tobacco research; all these things and more Happy will do with no extra taxes and cutting out many of the existing taxes.

Mr. Friend at Cayce, there's a sad day ahead for us if, by some strange coincidence Happy Chandler is elected. Happy is a lawyer and a baseball player and a fairly good baritone singer, but he's no Magician. He too, is a newspaper publisher and has a job printing plant, which might come in handy to print some phoney green-backs to pay all his phoney promises.

FROM THE FILES:

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK

July 11, 1930

The activity of the Illinois Central Railroad is developing agriculture along diversified lines in the Fulton territory dates back to 1916.

Soil building being the most important step in a diversification program, tests were made of the soil on farms in Fulton territory.

Later the Illinois Central started its campaign of dairy developments and succeeded in getting three communities adjoining Fulton interested in the movement.

The Agriculture Department of Illinois Central Railroad is composed of College trained men who have had practical experience in their respective lines of work. Their services are free and may be had for the asking.

Five thousand people participated in a July Fourth celebration at Columbus, Ky. The big barbecue, air circus, dancing and other amusements were for their enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Owen will soon move into their new home on Second street, a pretty six-room bungalow with basement and built in garage, constructed of brick and stucco. It is beautifully planned after the Southern California style with interior finishings designed for pleasure and comfort.

This is a lovely home, and Contractor Will Gayle is to be congratulated on the construction work.

Work of remodeling the Scates home on Carr street, recently purchased by Dr. C. W. Curlin, of Hickman, for a hospital, had been started and it is hoped to have the building ready in short order for the formal opening.

Five persons were injured when a motor bus eastbound from Wehiffe to Paducah plunged into a ditch and turned over Sunday near Kevil. The bus caught fire and was completely destroyed.

The good old days in Fulton were those when meals were opened with blessing instead of can openers.

The Lodgeston Homemakers Club will serve a chicken supper in Fulton, at the Chamber of Commerce, Friday night, beginning at 5:45. Fried chicken with the proper accessories and winding up with home made ice cream and cake, will be served.

The supper is being given in order to raise funds to maintain the home in Fulton county. The various clubs in the county are now at work raising the amount and the supper here is part of the campaign.

the royal fleas were in hiding. I suppose that common fleas must have been less tough and would die off from sprinklings of less aristocratic or royal juices.

Many a citation could be given of references to fleas in older literature, when people were not so finicky as to whisper about fleas and other such pests. Any picture of peasant life was almost sure to mention fleas and other crawlers and jumpers as if they were not only a part of the world but a very necessary part at that. If dogs had fleas, why not people, even kings and queens?

Since I have never lived around kings and queens, I cannot say whether they have lost the art of catching fleas, but from very vivid memories I know that the common or garden variety of folks once-at Fidelity, of course-could track down the elusive varmits and butcher them at their nefarious work. I must admit that it is a skill that, thanks to sprays and such things, may some day be lost, maybe it will be necessary for some rich man to restore conditions that will make the art necessary again.

Now, when I was getting my early education at Fidelity, I attended a one-room school that had underpinning of logs that were left on the grounds after the schoolhouse was erected. Some of these logs decayed or else rolled away from their proper places. Hogs obligingly took refuge under the house. Hogs, also, have been known to be covered with fleas. These were, forty to fifty squirming youngsters had an additional reason for squirming. As if that were not enough, we used to go outside at playtime and stand near the place where the hogs entered their shelter under the halls of learning, just to see how many black fleas would be hopping on our bare legs. Aesthetic, isn't it? We had no royal fleabane to protect us, fleas were a part of creation; the hogs were also a part of animated nature. Hogs, boys, fleas-what better combination would you wish?

GOVERNOR APPOINTS

Governor Wetherby reappointed Erwin L. Casebier, Beaver Dam, to a four-year term on the State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors and named William A. Diary of Doin's

—Around Fulton—

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends.

That story in the Diary last week about the great production the young people out in Highlands were planning just set them wild. They really hadn't intended producing the "The Mysterious House" for several weeks, but as the six performers read the story the more excited they became so they just went into frenzied rehearsal and presented it last Friday night.

Advance billing of the show was announced and a real old said that it was an hour long production with a fifteen-minute intermission, at which time there would be songs by two artists, strictly without music.

Tickets for the event were all typed and read: "The Mysterious House, produced and directed by the four J's. The four being, Jill Edwards, Jim Burton, Judy Moore and Judy Burton. They rehearsed until almost time for the show. They frantically ran home for a very quick meal, which they swallowed without chewing and at about seven-thirty all was ready and the audience had gathered.

Really, it was a very delightful undertaking and all of us who witnessed the production were pleased as punch that the kids had so much ingenuity. The theater, was the back end of the Burton's garage, which somehow was converted into a stage, some foot above ground level. They used an old bedspread as a back drop and curtain; had props to suit the occasion and somehow they made cobwebs on the walls to depict a real-gone mysterious house.

We never did get the drift of the script, but it seems like a couple of kids were walking home from the show at about eleven p. m. and decided to go into the house to see if it was really mysterious. On entering the youngsters found a dead man on the floor. We imagine that the Burton folks had a little to do, with stuffing the dummy, because it looked right authentic.

Well, the script went along as it was written and then we got lost. A couple of youngsters who live with us, somewhat younger than the four J's, took their bathrobes and pajamas to the production and were supposed to appear on stage dressed in such raiment. However as the show unfolded they appeared on the stage in their street wear and the least of the actors in the show, a little lady about five said, "Look at the mouses, I knew there was ghost here." Then the little girl with her brother walked off.

Came intermission and the little lady with the long lines sang "Me and My Gal" and the minute she started warbling, Mr. Corcoran do start off howling and it was a time up as to which wailing sounded the best. After the first song, a seven year old boy appeared and sang "Twinkle-de-de" with top hat and cane, but Sir Corcoran hum-de-dummed lots louder than he did, so we had to imagine the rest. Also during intermission Jim Burton did some magic tricks... things disappearing and all.

After intermission the last act

But the intermission was long enough. Sure it was! Long enough for them to pour out extra long cola drinks into a pitcher and sell them for tea cents each and of course, they were well patronized the weather and the mosquitoes being what they were. The whole shebang, admissions, drinks and everything netted them some big two dollars. Asked the reason for the show, besides showing of their great talents, one of the producers said: "We were running out of money and needed some so that's why we put on the show." Not a bad idea at all.

We may be in for a long siege of such production if the youthful enthusiasm holds out. Sunday Lynn and Terry Dallas told us that they, too, were planning a big show. Little Jane Edwards thinks she has a bee in her bonnet for such a production. Yes, indeed, summer is here.

Happy 50 years
On June 15, 1905, Mr. Ferd Rhodes son of the late Johnnie Rhodes and Martha Jane Rogers Rhodes and Mrs. Lillian Reeves Rhodes, daughter of the late Jessie and Ella Thomas Reeves were married by Esquire Ike Cavender near where they now reside. Their attendants were Mr. George Wiggins and Miss Bula Reeves.

Sunday, June 12, they celebrated the occasion with open house from two until six p. m. Mrs. Rhodes wore a navy blue dress with a yellow carnation corsage.

The table was covered with a dainty lace cloth. In the center was a beautiful centerpiece with five lighted candles burning on a yellow satin setting covered with greenery, a gift of Fulton County. Floral Shoppe. On one end of the table was a lovely three-tier decorated wedding cake with a bride and groom on top made by Mrs. Willie Cavender and on the other end was a beautiful punch bowl.

The Rhodes have two sons, Hoyt of Detroit, Michigan and Mackey in the Air Force at Greenville, South Carolina. Neither was present.

At the register was Mrs. Drew

Miss Peggy Jean Adams and Mr. Godfrey Binford To Be Married; Late Fall Wedding Is Planned

Foretelling a wedding of unusual social interest in Fulton and West Kentucky is the announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Adams of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Peggy Jean to Mr. Charles Godfrey Binford. Mr. Binford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Both members of prominent Fulton families the bride-elect and her fiancé are popular in the social set of Fulton. Miss Binford is a graduate of Fulton High School has made an outstanding record in musical circles in the Mid-South and is a music major at the Murray State College, where she is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, music society.

Mr. Binford is also a graduate of Fulton High School. For the past three years he has been serving in the U. S. Navy. At Wall, a sister of Mrs. Rhodes. The register was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hornbush. Miss Albie Mae Wall received and opened the many lovely gifts. Mrs. Edgar Reeves, Mrs. Willie Cavender and Mrs. Hazel Walker served the guests as they arrived. A lovely basket of zennias and a bouquet of snapdragons was presented by Mrs. Paul Howard.

A large number of friends called during the afternoon. The couple received many nice gifts and to them we wish many, many more years of happy married life together.

Appearing with the prize-winning letters in the Young-folks contest sponsored by The Progressive Farmer magazine is the letter of Edward Butler, 12, of Fulton County. Edward writes "Every picnic is a favorite. I like picnics and have never been on one that I didn't enjoy," says Edward. "I especially like to go to Reelfoot Lake and fry fish, eat under the trees, then wade, fish, boat ride, catch minnows, swim, or just watch wildlife." Congratulations Edward.

Jerry Atkins keeps this diaryist well informed of his military food editors and told us something we surely didn't know: that Catherine Atkins, his mother and Dixon Graham were close friends of the Courier-Journal's Clary Gregg when they were all at U. K. We often kidded Clary on the trip about all her schoolmates, and most of the editors told her she just went to school longer than anybody else. Did you know Jerry, that Clary Gregg is an agricultural major and one-time was an expert at the poultry experiment station at Mississippi State College.

Popular bride-elect of the month for brides" is Elizabeth Ann Sisson who will be married to Alton Barnes Sunday afternoon. Last Thursday night Mrs. Joe Gambill and Mrs. Jack Moore honored Elizabeth Ann at a miscellaneous shower in the Moore home in the Gardner apartments. Elizabeth Ann looked lovely as only a popular bride-elect can look in one of her trousseau frocks of mint green cotton.

The Moore apartment was the right setting for this congenial group of people with specimen gladioli placed about the living-room. The thoughtful hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage to complement her costume and also a gift selection from her chosen pattern of china.

Invited guests included the bride's mother, Mrs. Buford Sisson, the groom's mother, Mrs. Hugh Barnes, Mrs. Harmon Johnson, Mrs. Henry Underwood, Mrs. Roney Clark, Miss Gail Dedmon, Miss Rita Copeland, Mrs. Raymond Gambill, Mrs. Adrian Ray, Mrs. Clyde Wood, Miss Nancy Wood, Mrs. Lillie Traver, Mrs. L. E. Mooneyham, Jr., Mrs. Gardner Whitlock, Mrs. U. S. Copeland, Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Otis Sisson, Miss Carolyn Sisson of Paducah and Mrs. Charley Burnley of Paducah.

The fun of a miscellaneous shower was repeated again Sunday afternoon when Misses Gail Dedmon, Rita Copeland and Jonelle Wallace entertained for Elizabeth Ann at the Dedmon home. The clever hostesses out-did themselves in originality in decorating the home with assorted kitchen utensils hanging from satin ribbons in the living-room. They fixed the bride's table something special with a wedding cake in the center with tiny rosebuds all around.

On Sunday afternoon Elizabeth Ann chose another lovely pastel frock from her trousseau.

BENNETT HOMEMAKERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Bennett Homemakers Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. C. Sams, Sr., and officers for the coming year were elected. They are: Mrs. Bill Holland, president, who succeeds Mrs. Harry Hancock; Mrs. M. M. Matlock, vice-president; Mrs.

Joe Mack Reed and Mrs. Carey Friels, recreation leaders; Mrs. Robert Davis, landscape leader; Mrs. O. C. Linton and Mrs. L. P. Carney, crafts; Mrs. Bill Fenwick and Mrs. James Clay Binkley, major project; Mrs. Wales Austin and Mrs. O. C. Croft, health; Mrs. O. C. Croft, reading; Mrs. Bobby Ayers, citizenship; Mrs. M. E. Dawes, clothing; Mrs. H. C. Coulter, food; Miss Bertie Newberry, home furnishing.

There were 17 members and three visitors present.

The visitors were Mrs. V. E. McAllister, Mrs. Chester Binkley, Mrs. Wayne Christopher of Irvin, Ky.

The chairman, Mrs. Hancock gave a report on the Advisory Council, stating that Annual Day will be held on Oct. 17. The International Day program will be Friday afternoon, Aug. 5, at the K. U. office. A book report on "Inn Side Nantucket" was given by Mrs. O. C. Linton.

The major program, "Prevention of Heart Disease" was given by Mrs. Carey Friels and Mrs. Wales Austin.

Good nutrition rather than dieting was emphasized at weight-control classes for homemakers in Calloway county.

CEDAR HILL HOMEMAKERS HAVE MONTHLY MEETING

The Cedar Hill Homemakers Club held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Jack Coltharp on June 15. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Carl Yates. Roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Fayne Cross. Devotional and thought for the month were given by Mrs. Arlie Morris. Seven members and the following visitors were present: Mrs. J. C. McAllister, Mrs. Bevin Yates, Mrs. Kenneth Brewington, Mrs. Charles Pollard and Mrs. Thomas D. Ahn, Misses Ludella McKenzie, Sylvia Brewington, Nedra Carter, Janna Morris, and Keary Dublin. Mrs. Charles Pollard became a member.

The Club elected new officers for the coming year. Mrs. Jack Coltharp gave the garden notes, telling the club that June and July are the months to plant vegetables for winter and canning use. Spray with methoxychlor for blister beetles. Mrs. J. W. McKenzie gave the minor lesson. The Club adjourned to meet July 20 with Mrs. Robert Decker at 1:00 p. m., but those planning on working meet at 9:30.

WORK DAY PLANNED BY THE STATE LINE CLUB

The State Line Club enjoyed another meeting in the home of Mrs. Willie Cavender Monday afternoon, June 13.

Mrs. Neal Hedge had charge of the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. D. J. Jones.

Roll call was answered by each member giving a First Aid for picnics.

Mrs. Willie Cavender gave the devotional.

June is the month to elect officers. The club voted to keep the same officers for another year.

Mrs. Maurice Coffman showed a very attractive planter she had made and took orders for materials which will be made at the next meeting.

The major lesson on "Roadside Beautification" was very ably given by Mrs. Ben Winston. She stressed that the members should not only keep the fence row and right-of-way clean, but also the fields along the road should be cleared of weeds and made attractive back as far as you can see. Notice your own home, see if it is attractive from the road.

Mrs. A. F. Phillips gave a very interesting lesson on the study of Ceylon. She had pictures made in Ceylon, showing some of the natives and points of interest.

Garden notes were given by Mrs. Hazel Walker, which were very helpful.

Mrs. Willie Cavender conducted two enjoyable contests, with Mrs. Neal Hedge being the prize winner.

Sunshine gifts were received by Mrs. Henson Jones, Mrs. Neal Hedge and Mrs. A. F. Phillips.

The hostess served cake, and ice cream with strawberries to nine members and four visitors. Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. V. L. Phillips, Mrs. Ferd Rhodes and Miss Ora Hudson.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Edwin Cannon on July 11. Visitors are always welcome.

MARY COOK'S GARDEN TO BE ENTERED IN COUNTY CONTEST

The Friendship Club met June 8 with Mrs. Kenneth Hastings. The president, Mrs. James Wilshaw, presided. The song, "Bring Back My Bonnie" was sung by the group. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Billie Green. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The club voted to have a hamburger supper July 4 at the home of Mrs. Rufus Kimberlin.

Mrs. Billie Green reported on "Health and Nutrition."

The hostess served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and drinks to 13 members and three visitors. Mrs. Sam Hastings, Mrs. Ruth Cashion and Mrs. Davis Harris.

The club adjourned to meet July 12 with Mrs. Harold Gardiner.

After the club adjourned the members went on a tour of all the gardens of the club members, to select the garden to be entered in the county contest. Mrs. Mary Cook's garden was selected as the one.

Estimating Benefits Based
On Earnings After 1936

If your average earnings since 1936 are higher than your average earnings since 1950, it is possible that your benefits will be higher if it is based on your average earnings since 1936.

In figuring your average monthly earnings, over the period since 1936, do not count more than $3,000 of wages for any year before 1951, or more than $3,600 for any years 1951 through 1954. For 1955 and later years your earnings up to $4,200 a year can be counted. You may drop four (or five) years of low earnings or no earnings after 1936 in figuring your average, just as for earnings after 1950.

Any years of no earnings before you reached age 22 may also be omitted.

The method of figuring benefits using earnings after 1936 is different from that using earnings after 1950, but you can roughly approximate the amount by the table.

Estimating Benefits Based
On Earnings After 1950

To estimate your payments under the 1954 benefits formula, you must first estimate your average monthly earnings from January 1, 1951, up to the year in which you reach 65 or apply for payments. In case of death, the average earnings are figured up to the quarter of death.

In figuring your average earnings after 1950, you can drop out up to four calendar years after 1950 in which your earnings were lowest, or in which you had no earnings at all. If you have at least 20 quarters (5 years) of covered work acquired at any time, you can leave out one more calendar year of your lowest earnings. After the drop-out of low years (and of any period of disability that may have been established) the average monthly earnings are figured by dividing the total earnings in the remaining period by the months in that period; however, if fewer than 18 months are left, you must divide by 18.

Earnings for the year in which you apply for benefits are not included in the original computation. If they would increase your benefits you may ask after the end of the year to have the benefit refigured to include them.

Big Singing Is
Order Of Day And
Quartets Invited

The public is invited to be present at the 117th annual homecoming at Walnut Grove Methodist Church, South of Fulton, just off of highway 45E, Sunday June 26th. Sunday School starts at 10:00 a. m., worship service at 11:00 with a basket dinner at noon.

The afternoon will be spent in community singing, with all quartets being invited. Music will also be furnished by Janice Walker at the console of her Hammond organ and Mrs. Dennis Burket at the Vibra-Phone. If you like good music and singing and want to meet and fellowship with your old friends, be sure and be at Walnut Grove Methodist Church this next Sunday June 26th.

A most interesting tour by the Chestnut Glade Club members was a high, light of the years gardening project. The garden leader Mrs. J. T. Simpson planned the tour after the regular June meeting adjourned. The good garden of Mrs. Carl Rogers was visited and admired first, then Mrs. Edna Strong and Mrs. Vascoe Simpsons was next and every one agreed at that time that it was worthy of first place. Next was Mrs. Orvin Morrison then Mrs. Harvey Vaughn, Mrs. J. T. Simpson, Mrs. C. R. Reams, Mrs. Ada Rhodes, Mrs. J. M. Burke, Mrs. L. F. Burke and Mrs. M. B. Conner. It certainly was an inspiration to any gardener to visit these excellent gardens after much discussion the garden of Mrs. Strong and Mrs. Simpson was judged first. Mrs. J. M. Burke second and Mrs. M. B. Conner third. We feel that there can be no shortage of food in this community if other gardens in the community can compare with those visited. These gardeners had not planned on being in a contest. The first place gardens will be judged in a county contest July 11 and 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bandy from Missouri are visiting their cousin Mrs. Lucy Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Brann from Memphis visited Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn, Mrs. Opal Pounds and Hoyt Vaughan last week end.

Mrs. Everette Chambers is improving and was dismissed from the hospital last Saturday, after being a patient about three weeks.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. John Killebrew who passed away last week. Mr. Killebrew was much admired by many friends who are grieved with his devoted family at his passing.

Mrs. Berlie Robey was carried to Memphis for surgery Monday afternoon after a few days treatment at the Haws Hospital.

Hermon and Ramona Mitchell have moved to Mrs. Em Griffiths house. He is employed at the Paul Nanney garage.

Mrs. Maxine Erwin and children of Knoxville are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Simpson.

Approximately 150 young people of the Martin Sub-District Methodist Youth Fellowship attended the June meeting held in the Methodist Church here Monday night.

The meeting opened with group singing after which Judy Browning of Fulton welcomed the youth and their counselors and pastors. She introduced Rev. H. E. Russell, new minister of Fulton church, who led in prayer.

An interesting and informative program on Christian Citizenship was presented by Janet Allen of Fulton, one of the Sub-District officers. She was assisted by Gerald Bushart who read the scripture and Melinda Powell who closed the program by singing "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

A short business meeting was held with the newly elected Sub-District Vice-President Martha Taylor of Olivet presiding, assisted by the Secretary Sandra Beard of Sharon.

The group then convened in the church basement for the recreation, under the direction of Howard Farris of Gleason, Chairman of Christian Fellowship. He was assisted by Mrs. Nelson Tripp, Sub-District Counselor.

Refreshments were served by the local M. Y. F.

Maybe Editor Gardner is somewhat annoyed at the public officials who maintain the courts. That's his prerogative. But his annoyance is no match for our resentment of the several public officials, quoted by the Press Scimitar as being "fed up with the rotten mess in Fulton County." It is the duty of those public officials to correct any situations of wrong-doing instead of "passing the buck" to the other fellow. At campaign-time they all promised clean-ups and respect for the law. When the chips are down and their own short-comings are revealed they cry "my hands are tied" to the detriment of the law-abiding citizens who honestly performed their duties as jurors.

In Editor Gardner's sincerity we believe that he could do a lot of good correcting the situations in the courts and in his community that he thinks are wrong if he went about them a little less belligerent, and a little more regard for the integrity of persons who do a rather thankless job as jurors.

Mrs. Murry McConnell and daughters Nancy and Mary Elizabeth will arrive in Fulton June 22, from Little Rock, Ark. to visit her mother Mrs. Charles Payne and other relatives. Mr. McConnell will join his family in three weeks. At this time they will go to North Carolina to visit at his home.

Wife (reading from an insurance pamphlet): "At large percentage of the accidents occur in the kitchen."

Husband: "Yes, and what's worse, we men have to eat them and pretend we enjoy them."

Mayfield Golf and Country Club will again be the site of the third annual West Kentucky Invitational Golf Tournament for Women on Thursday and Friday, July 14th and 15th. The tournament is a 36-hole medal play event open to women golfers from Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Eighteen holes will be played each day with the Championship Flight consisting of the 24 players with the lowest scores on the first day and a First Flight comprising all other entrants. A handsome trophy and matched set of irons will be presented the winner and trophies and valuable other prizes valued at over $500 will be awarded the winners of runners-up honors and scores of other honors, distributed so that golfers of all handicaps may be eligible to "reap the rewards of victory."

Mrs. Earline Crisp of Metropolis, Illinois has more or less monopolized the tournament having won the title in the inaugural event in 1953 with a score of 171, then repeating with Mrs. Carl Rogers was hostess to the June meeting of the Home Demonstration Club at her home Thursday. She called the house to order by reading the thought for the day. "It's a pleasant thought that when you help a fellow up a steep hill you get near the top yourself." Kindness is the oil that takes friction out of life." Mrs. E. I. Brundige led the group in a few minutes recreation. Mrs. Edna Strong led the song "Bring Back My Bonnie." Mrs. Myrtle Temple gave the devotion and prayer. Secretary Mrs. Harvey Vaughn called the roll with seventeen members present and the following visitors were welcomed. Mrs. Otha Linton of Fulton, Mrs. Maxine Erwin and daughter of Knoxville, Mrs. Marshall Rogers and son, Mrs. Clyde Stewart, Miss Doris Rowlette, Mrs. J. T. Brundige and Donna Kay Grubbs. During the business session the Craft Leader, Mrs. Jim Burke suggested a workday the 30th at which time our road signs will be improved along with other craft. This being the month to tour the community gardens, the Project Leaders postponed their reports until next month. Miss Odon gave helpful suggestions in nutrition and this being Dairy Month she demonstrated the refreshing drinks using milk products.

The hostess served a party plate and drinks. Beginning with Mrs. Rogers' several gardens were visited with Mrs. Vascoe Simpson's and her mother, Mrs. Edna Strong's being selected as number one, and Mrs. Jim Burke's a close second.

The July meeting will be with Mrs. Ada Rhodes at her home in Ruthville.

Two year history of the tournament. 36 have played both in 1953 and 1954. Only one player has ever with drawn from the 36-hole event. The Mayfield course is ideal for a tournament for women. It is moderately rolling, generously spotted with trees, but with a large gaping creek which borders four holes and a large lake which borders two others on the nine-hole layout. The course is short for women, 5,480 yards and is a course, which all women have enjoyed playing. Entries must be sent in before July 10th to Mrs. Sheila Shaw, West Kentucky Golf Tournament for Women, Mayfield, Ky. Entrance Fee is $5.00 which includes luncheon on both days, practice rounds, dancing under the stars on Thursday, and an opportunity for lots of fun and Election of officers and appointing of project leaders for the coming year, plus the planning of an International Day program and Family night, made up a busy meeting for the Rush Creek Homemaker's Club this month. Beginning at 1:30 p. m. at the Sylvan Shade Community House, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Harry Sublette Jr. and first on the agenda were plans for the observance of International Day in July. The committee reported that Mrs. D. J. Craddock of Clinton, will give a lecture on Hawaii at an afternoon tea, to be held at Rush Creek Methodist Church on Tuesday, July 26, beginning at 2 p. m. Appointed to the refreshment committee were Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. Clem Atwill and Mrs. Loyd Call.

Plans for Family night call for the annual picnic supper, to be held this year at the home of Mrs. Scott DeMyer on Tuesday, July 12.

New officers elected were: President, Mrs. Scott DeMyer, Vice-President, Mrs. Clem Atwill, Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Clint Workman and Recreation Leader, Mrs. Lew Atwill. Mrs. DeMyer also appointed Federation officers and Project Leaders as follows: Publicity, Mrs. John Watts, Citizenship, Mrs. Lawrence Cardwell Jr. Reading, Mrs. Harry Sublette Jr. Home Management (Major Project) Mrs. Robert Adams and Mrs. Albert Moss, Foods, Mrs. Joe Atwill, Crafts, Mrs. Clint Workman and Mrs. Charles Adams, Landscape, Mrs. Loyd Call and 4-H Mrs. T. N. Curlin, Mrs. Donald Mabry, Mrs. Tommie Jones and Mrs. Albert Moss. Clothing, Mrs. Carl Harrison.

An informative lesson on Prevention and Care of Heart Disease was given by Mrs. Loyd

Call and Mrs. Clint Workman, with particular emphasis on the danger and symptoms of rheumatic fever.

Landscape notes were read by Mrs. John Watts and Gardening by Mrs. Lawrence Cardwell. Visitors were Mrs. Alvin Mabry, Mrs. Buddy Choate and Mrs. Linda Arrington and Mrs. Leon Jones was welcomed as a new member.

Hostess for the day were Mrs. Harry Sublette Sr. and Mrs. Harry Sublette Jr.

Down on the Farm

With JIM PRYOR

Agricultural Agent, Illinois Control Railroad

Now that spring is here for good, I hope maybe we can get some work done. Most farmers have very little farming under way but by the end of month if the weather holds the picture will change.

The trench silo machine that I wrote about a few weeks ago in this column is now working full swing in West Kentucky and West Tennessee. Four silos have been cut to date and by the time you read this two more will have been cut. We haven't finished a silo yet, because the concrete has to set for 10 days to two weeks. I would advise the concrete to be set for 10 days to two weeks. The earth is the best form that concrete can have and the longer it stays in the ground curing out the better. After three weeks I do not think you will gain very much on curing but it will not hurt to leave it longer than that.

The Graves County Agricultural Council is sponsoring a silo field day July 6. I will give you more information later on the demonstration but we know that July 8 is the day set for the big meeting. We plan to cut and fill the trench walls with concrete during the day and probably some silage cut. Most of the day will be devoted to the trench silo and show its advantages. As yet I can see no disadvantages to the trench silo if it is of the permanent type. I mean by that if you cut the walls with the trenching machine and pour the concrete, floor and use the self feeding gate. We will have more figures on the cost when we have finished a silo. It looks like the complete job will run between $500 and $600 for a 100 ton silo. Now a farmer that wants to take the dirt out of the silo with a farm tractor and can pour his own concrete can save a lot on construction.

If you want to figure just how much a silo will cost you and how large to make it I will give you some home work. Estimate just how many cows you will want to self feed. Take into consideration your replacement heifers. Allow 6 inches per head and that is the width of the silo at the floor, then allow about 5 tons silage per mature animal unit and that is the capacity you will need. You can make about 10 to 15 tons silage per acre, averaging about 12 tons. Your silo will be 6 1/2 feet deep. With all this information in mind we are now ready to start figuring your silo. Now then to make it easy let's say you have twenty cows to feed, you will need 100 tons silage and it will need to be at least 10 feet wide at the bottom but you plan to expand so we will figure on 12 feet at the bottom which will feed 24 cows. O. K. here we go: the silo will be 4 feet wider at the top to give you the slope necessary for packing, so the average width will be 14 feet now 14 ft X 6 1/2 ft. long will give you 5915 cu ft. X 40 pounds silage per cu ft gives you 236600 pounds take half is 118 tons, about right for your 24 head. That was easy, now let's figure the cost of this 118 ton silo. The trenching will cost 75c per running foot, so 75 X 130 gives you $98.50. If you will multiply 130 ft X 7 1/2 X 7 1/2 it will give you 570 cu ft divide by 27 and you have 21 cu yds, or 32 cu yds concrete. Using a 6 bag mix will give you 192 bags cement 130 per bag is 249.60 with a total cost so far of $348.10. With you doing the work and getting the gravel and sand out of the creek you can

STATE DAIRY SHOWS PLANNED FOR EIGHT AUGUST SHOWINGS

Both 4-H and FFA farm youth were reminded today to prepare for the eight District Dairy Shows to be sponsored by the Department of Agriculture during August. Premium money in the shows will amount to $10,000.

Since 1951 the dairy shows have provided competition for 3,494 club youths. The shows have shown an increasing number of entries each year with 2,354 animals in last year's event.

According to Department of Agriculture officials the shows are conducted under the following rules:

Entries are restricted to regularly enrolled 4-H Club and Future Farmer members who are carrying a dairy project with qualified participants permitted to show either purebred or grade animals. Only female animals are eligible to show and no club member will be permitted to enter more than three animals nor participate in more than one state-sponsored show.

This year's shows will be held at Mayfield, August 15; Madisonville, August 17; Campbellsville, August 18; Somerset, August 23; Williamstown, August 24; Flemingsburg, August 25; and Shelbyville, August 26.

Wheat Support Price Is $2.16 Per Bushel

The minimum support for 1955 No. 1 RW crop wheat in Fulton County is $2.16 per bushel. E. W. Yates, Vice Chairman of the Fulton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced.

The rate for the same class and grade of wheat last year was $2.30 per bushel when wheat support was based on 90 percent of parity.

The 1955-crop rate is based on 82 1/2 percent of parity. Vice Chairman, E. W. Yates, explains that rates currently announced are the minimum rates based on the national average minimum support of $2.06 announced September 15, 1954, when parity was $2.50 per bushel.

If the parity figure is higher on July 1, 1955 the support will be adjusted upward accordingly, but the rate will not be lower than the minimum.

Carroll county homemakers reported freezing 13,448 pounds of vegetables, fruits and meats, and canning 4,423 quarts.

have a silo at the low cost of about 350 dollars. The dozer will charge about $50.00 for moving the dirt if you want that done for you and you still have a cheap silo. If you want your concrete poured for you it will cost about 14.00 per yd which will cost you about $448.00 or a total cost for the finished product or a lock and key job $594.00. This is still cheap storage and about the easiest way to feed cattle. After you fill the silo just let the cows do the work of getting it out.

You will have to take the time to adjust the feeding gate every day or so and through off the spoilage from the top. The better you pack the silage the less spoilage you will have. No covering is necessary except maybe, spread a thin layer of agriculture limestone on the silage after you have packed it for an hour or so every day for about a week.

If there is any question about this silo machine I will try to get the answer for you. The figures on the silo will vary with prices in different locations, but it is close to bring right. Now after this math lesson you should be thoroughly confused, so come around and let's talk about it. I had rather do that anyway.

Don't forget the Silo Field Day July 6.

Jam Session With Blackberries

Newspapers are written so that "he who runs may read," and modern science has found a way so that she who plays all day may still have flavorful Blackberry Jam. Even with lovely summer days to enjoy, what homemaker cannot take a little time out on an early morning to save some of that fresh, summer flavor for later and colder months?

By using this modern short-boil method, the true flavor of the berries is kept and not boiled away. You will find that this method of jellymaking is quick and easy and the children will love helping around a kitchen full of the fragrance of blackberries! In literally a matter of minutes your sparkling glasses of jam will be ready and—wonder of wonders, you will have time to bundle up the children for a trip to the beach or country!

Blackberry Jam
Yield: about 16 medium glasses (5 lbs. jam)
4 cups prepared fruit (about 2 qts. ripe blackberries)
First, prepare the fruit. Crush completely, one layer at a time, about 2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Sieve half of pulp to remove some of the seeds. Measure 4 cups pulp into a very large saucepan.
Then make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well.

Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat stir in Certo. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle jam into glasses. Cover jam at once with 1/2 inch hot packing.

Price Support Loans Barley Price Support On 1955 Oats Revealed For 1955 Is Announced
S. E. Holly, Office Manager of the Fulton County ASC Committee, announced today that the office had received a 1955 Price Support Loan Rate for oats. This being 75c per bushel for oats grading 3 or better.

Mr. Holly stated that Price Support loans could be obtained on Farm Stored or Warehouse Stored, however, the county office, has no knowledge of any warehouse storage available for oats in this vicinity. For further information contact your ASC Office.

CONTEST PLANNED FOR STATE'S BEST MAJORETTE OF '55

The state contest to select "Miss Majorette of Kentucky" will be conducted on July 9, 1955 at Joyland Park, Paris Road, Lexington, Kentucky.

All Majorettes residing in the state between the ages of 15-22 yrs. or age are eligible to compete for the Miss Majorette title. Miss Majorette and one alternate will be selected. Each will receive a lovely trophy, "Miss Majorette of Kentucky," will represent this state in the original, annual, national contest to select "Miss Majorette of the Year." National contest is conducted at Buckeye Lake, Ohio, on August 28, 1955. "Miss Majorette" of each state attending the national contest receives a high trophy engraved Miss Majorette of her particular state.

Judge, for this local contest will be Victor Faber, retired, undefeated, national twirling champion, who now devotes his full time to the art of twirling as a youth activity.

Majorettes will be judged on the basis of baton twirling, strutting, poise and grace, showmanship and beauty. Selection of Miss Majorette is not just based on beauty nor is it just based on twirling, but

Owners of certain types of businesses and of coin-operated amusement machines were reminded today by the Kentucky Department of Revenue of two licenses which must be renewed by July 1. These are the occupational license, and the amusement machine license.

The $10 amusement machine license stamps must be displayed on every coin-operated amusement device, such as a pinball machine or a record-playing machine. These licenses may be obtained from the Department of Revenue, Frankfort, or its district offices in Ashland, Covington, Lexington, Louisville, Owensboro and Paducah.

Occupational licenses may be obtained from the county court clerks in each county. They are required for the following businesses: restaurants serving hot food or hot drinks, retail sales of soft drinks or ice cream, billiard or pool tables, bowling alleys, theaters, cigarette wholesalers, and retail sales of tobacco products.

is based on the best all around Majorette therefore making it possible for almost any high school Majorette to win the Title.

Freeze your lemon Meringue pie. We just remember that freezing will not change a poor product into a good one. The frozen version is never better than the original. For good results, remember to cook the filling is thick enough it will hold its shape and not "weep".

It is so easy to do, just make and bake the crust as you would for any pie. Use a regular or foil pie pan for the crust. Crumbly pastry crust may be used. Cool thoroughly before adding the filling.

Prepare filling and pour into cooled crust. Be sure to cook the filling enough so it will hold its shape. The meringue will be made and topped on the pie later when it is removed from the freezer. Wrap each pie separately for the freezer. Cover pie with a paper plate and secure in place with freezer tape. Place in a foil or moisture-vapor proof paper or bag. This will keep nicely for three to four months. It will be protected and pies can be stacked on top of each other in freezer.

Egg whites are frozen separately. Place three egg whites in a small container; this will give the right amount for a 9 inch pie. When you are ready to use the pie, remove the egg whites and bring to room temperature. This is important to obtain light meringue. Be sure to beat them thoroughly for a high, light meringue that will hold up. Next take the frozen pie from the freezer and spread with meringue. The pie does not need to be defrosted immediately after covering with meringue, place it in 350° oven to brown for 15 to 20 minutes. The meringue spread on the pie acts as an insulator and the pie will cool quickly after removing from oven. You will have a cool refreshing pie.

Lemon Meringue Pie
1/4 cup cornstarch 1 1/2 cups sugar 1/2 teaspt salt 1 1/2 cups hot water 3 egg yolks 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice 1 teaspt. grated lemon peel 1 teaspt. butter.

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt in saucepan add water gradually and cook, stirring constantly, until clear. Remove from heat and stir in beaten egg yolks. Return to range and cook slowly until thick. Add lemon juice, peel and butter. Cool and pour into pie shell. Package and freeze.

Meringue for pie
3 egg whites 1/4 teaspt. cream of tartar 6 tspt. sugar.

New Drive-In Opens With Giant Screen

Fulton's newest drive-in theatre, the Midway, opened this week on U. S. 51 just on the other side of the "Y", 3 miles north of town.

The theatre is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stout of Cairo, Ill., and will feature a giant wide screen, large-capacity lot, snack bar and playground for the kiddies.

In a mishap two weeks ago, Half of the giant screen was blown over by strong winds before it could be anchored, and again earlier this week a part of the screen collapsed during erection. However, the owners plan to have everything in complete readiness by opening time.

Robert F. Matthews, Jr., Shelbyville, was named as counsel for the State Department of Revenue and Kentucky Tax Commission with the rank of Assistant Attorney General. Matthews was connected with the Department in 1949 and 1950, then left for private practice.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you.
Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (dis-tincture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Bert Combs Has Parlayed Hard Work And Honesty Into Political Strength

When Bert Combs started his drive to become governor only five months ago, he was virtually unknown outside Eastern Kentucky and except for people who do business with the court of Appeals, where he was a judge. Today, he can attract and hold a crowd in a manner that does credit to a campaigner of many seasons. His name now is known and respected as widely in other parts of the Commonwealth as it is his home town of Prestonsburg.

The handsome young mountaineer has parlayed a quiet but friendly manner, hard work and obvious sincerity into great political strength.

As one of Combs' county campaign chairmen observed, "the people just sort of seem to take to Bert. They notice him first as a nice looking young man they think they'd like to meet. They pay attention to him because he has something to say, and they are sure they can count on what he is telling them. He has an 'affidavit face' and then they find he has an 'affidavit character' to go with it."

Combs has insisted that his campaign be pitched on a plane of integrity and honesty; that there be no attempt to fool the people with honey promises. This was his theme in his opening address in Shelbyville, when he said, "Integrity is the most important quality any public official can offer to the people."

When a candidate for public office makes a public statement, that statement becomes a contract between him and the people and he should be bound by his contract."

The hard work Combs has put comes as no surprise to those who have known him for a long time. He has always worked hard. From a small hillside farm in Clay County, where he lived as a boy, through high school, Cumberland College and the University of Kentucky Law School, hard work was always a necessity.

Combs, who will be 44 the week after the Primary, was one of six children born to Stephen and Martha Combs of Manchester. His early life was divided between Manchester and the farm where he did the usual chores a farm boy does. He worked at a soda fountain while in high school and fired a furnace and did janitorial work while at Cumberland College.

After a year and a half at Cumberland he went to work for the Department of Highways in Frankfort in order to get money to continue his education. At the University of Kentucky he worked as a laundry clerk.

Young Combs was able to maintain a high scholastic average despite his outside activities. He even had time to play a little basketball and baseball while in high school. He graduated from high school at 15. At U. K. he was an honor law student, finishing second in his class in 1937.

His high standing in the legal profession is a result of work as both a civilian and as a soldier in the Philippines in World War II. He was chief of the Investigating Section of the War Crimes Department on General MacArthur's staff and was awarded a Bronze Star in addition to a decoration given by a grateful Philippines government.

Combs' total war service took him from private to Captain and spanned four years, from 1942 to 1946.

After the war Combs returned to his law practice and ser-

Bert Combs with Mrs. Combs, the former Mabel Hall of Knott County, and Lois Ann, 11, and Tommy, 9. The family has made its home in Lexington since Combs went to the State Court of Appeals in 1951.

ved as city attorney and as commonwealth attorney in Prestonsburg. He attracted the attention of Governor Wetherby who named him to the Court of Appeals to succeed the late Judge Roy Helm.

This was in 1951, and Combs had to run for the court seat that fall. In this race, Combs established himself as a hard and effective campaigner. Working night and day he visited all sections of his judicial district and came up with a 4,000 vote majority in what is normally a Republican district.

His opponent was no amateur vote-getter or newcomer to the Kentucky political scene. In fact, he was about the hottest thing the Republican party could muster-former Governor Simeon Willis.

Combs' record on the state's top court has been acclaimed as outstanding by those who were associated with him from 1951 until he resigned to run for Governor last winter. "A brilliant mind and an excellent lawyer with a practical and sensitive feeling for those he is working with," is the way one of his associates describes him. Although he gave full attention to his duties on the court, Combs kept himself informed on the problems and needs of state government. He has definite ideas of what he thinks need to be done for the people of Kentucky. He is particularly sympathetic to the need of education and to the state's welfare and mental health programs.

Rumsey Taylor, Combs' state chairman, has described his candidate as "one of the hardest campaigners in recent Kentucky history," and says the campaign is progressing faster than his organization had thought it would.

"Everywhere, Bert goes we are getting good reports," Taylor said. "People don't always tell us the same thing, but there is one comment that is unanimous. That is the observation that Bert is attracting people because of his sincerity. We may hear complaints that he doesn't slap a back as hard or that he doesn't yell as loud as other candidates. But we never have been told that the people don't believe what he is telling them."

That, in the opinion of Combs and his campaign organization, is the best report you could get about a candidate or a public official.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY

The Governorship is Kentucky's most important office. The Governor's program will influence your life for years to come. I pledge myself to put Kentucky's interest first.

Bert Combs

Managing the affairs of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky is big business.

It is a full-time job that requires proved executive ability plus high integrity and the utmost sincerity. It is a job that requires a man of constant nature and unquestioned loyalty to the State and to its people.

Bert Combs is the man for the job. His program is not tailored for any section of the Commonwealth. It is the same in Ashland as it is in Paducah. It will be the same at the end of the campaign as it was when he opened his campaign in Shelbyville on June 2.

Bert Combs is a man that every Kentuckian can endorse with pride. A farm boy, he worked his way through school . . . a patriot, he volunteered at the beginning of World War II . . . a soldier, he worked his way up from private to Chief of the Investigating Section of the War Crimes Department on the staff of General Douglas MacArthur in the Philippines . . . a lawyer, he worked his way up to judge of the highest court in Kentucky.

Bert Combs knows that unemployment is a problem . . . that prosperity must be worked for continually. He is from Eastern Kentucky where unemployment is now on everyone's mind. His forward looking program is planned to meet the challenge and overcome the causes of unemployment for all Kentuckians. His record of leadership in both military and civilian life proves him qualified to handle such a program.

Bert Combs is not running on the success of any past administration; nor does he find it necessary to distort his own past record. Bert Combs has conducted himself in such a way that his record is a stirring open book. His future plans are his own. His policies and beliefs are genuine; not hand-me-down platitudes. His courageous platform is "Put Kentucky First" . . . and he will!

COURT SALE

In pursuance of a judgment of the Fulton Circuit Court rendered on June 23, 1955, in the action of John B. Rose, Administrator de bonis non of the estate of Mrs. Maggie M. Jones, deceased, et al, plaintiffs versus Maury Jones et al, defendants, I will on Monday, July 11, 1955, at about the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., being County Court Day, at the Court House door in Hickman, Fulton County, Kentucky, sell to the highest and best bidder or bidders, the following described real estate lying and being in Fulton County Kentucky:

Parcel No. 1: The North 33 feet of City Lots Nos 15 and 16 as the same are shown, known, and designated on a plat or map of the Richmond-Bond Addition to the City of Hickman, Kentucky, a copy of which plat is of record in Book No. 27, at page 325, of the deed records of Fulton County, Kentucky. This is a portion of the property conveyed to Mrs. Maggie M. Jones by deed of her husband, J. T. Jones, dated Dec. 3rd, 1921, and recorded in Book 39 page 607 in the Deed Records of Fulton County, Ky.

Parcel No. 2: The South 57 feet of City Lots Nos. 15 and 16 as the same are shown, known, and designated on a plat or map of the Richmond-Bond Addition to the City of Hickman, Kentucky, a copy of which plat is of record in Book No. 27, at page 325 of the deed records of Fulton County, Kentucky. This is a portion of the property conveyed to Mrs. Maggie M. Jones by deed of her husband, J. T. Jones, dated Dec. 3rd, 1921, and recorded in Book 39 page 607 in the Deed Records of Fulton County, Ky.

The aforesaid property shall be sold separately in parcels as above designated and then both of said parcels shall be sold together as a whole and that shall be declared a sale that brings more money.

This property shall be sold on a credit of six months taking a good sale bond bearing 6% interest per annum until paid and retaining a lien on the property. The purchaser or purchasers shall have the privilege of paying cash or paying the sale bond at any time before maturity paying only the principal and accrued interest.

The purchaser shall assume the payment of the 1955 taxes on the property purchased by them. The purpose of this sale is to settle the estate of Mrs. Maggie M. Jones, deceased, and the purpose also is to affect a division of the real estate among the heirs of Mrs. Maggie M. Jones, deceased.

* The Scoreboard (Continued from page 1)

hit and 13 errors. Fletcher was the winning pitcher.

Thursday the Clothiers scored what is believed to be a record making total of runs, Mayfield beat Fulton 33-7.

The Clothiers scored in every inning, with Fulton using two pitchers, a catcher, a first baseman and an outfielder on the mound.

Friday the Mayfield Clothiers took a double header from the Lookouts, winning the first game 8-5 and the night cap 3-2. Bob Reeme pitched two hit ball in the last game.

Saturday the Lookouts traveled to Paducah to have the Chiefs win a 10-5 victory. Fulton got two runs in the first inning and added two more in the fourth and one in the ninth. The losing pitcher was Hughes.

Sunday night the Lookouts went back to Paducah only to have the Chiefs slam a 12-3 win over them. The Paducah Chiefs collected 19 hit off of Swiggett the Fulton pitcher. In the seventh Paducah scored six runs. Fulton collected eight hits off of Wilson and Leandre.

Monday the Lookouts played host to the Paducah Chiefs. The Fulton pitcher Mickey Foster pitched himself a shut out. As the Lookouts won 3-0. The Chiefs out hit the Lookouts but in the sixth inning he Lookouts made the three deciding runs of the game. Fulton had two men on and Paul Abraham doubled them home and then moved to third on a wild pitch and scored when the catchers throw was wild to third.

Satchell was the losing pitcher.

The Little league team started practice, Wednesday. The Little League field is coming along nicely. They have a hustling bunch of young boys and we should see some good games from them this season.

REBELS WIN ANNUAL NORTH-SOUTH CLASSIC Saturday night June 18 at Murray State's College gym the North and South met again. Twenty four of the nations top high school basketball players met and gave the capacity crowd forty minutes of basketball at it's best.

The Rebels, led by Leo Byrd, six foot, one-inch, senior guard from Huntington, W. Va. High School jumped into the lead from the opening whistle. Byrd received plenty of support from Billy Howell who comes Middleton, Tenn. Howell who stands six feet, five inches scored over a thousand points the past year in leading Middleton to a 36-3 season. Dick Johnson, six foot, one inch, from Austin, Texas and Bob Ferry a six foot eight and one half inch boy, from St. Louis, Mo. gave Howell and Byrd plenty of support.

From the North Joe Ruklick a 16 year old, six foot, eight inch, senior from Princeton, Ill. and Joe Ryan, six foot, two inch, from Philadelphia, Pa. were the big guns, along with Mike Moran, six foot, eight inch, from Eugene, Ore.

Orby Arnold, six foot, five inches, from Mayfield played a very fine game on the backboards and chipped in with four points. Gene Mathis from New Concord, Ky. saw limited action because of an ankle injury.

Byrd was high man for the game with 26 points. Joe Ryan from the North was close behind with 19.

Byrd, Howell and Johnson from the South and Ryan and Ruklick from the North were named to the All American team, picked by Sport Writers, Sport Announcers and Coaches. Jeol Byrd was named "Mr. Basketball" for being the outstanding player of the game.

You basketball fans throughout this area if you want to see real basketball, plan to see the North-South Classic next year at the Murry Stat, College Gym.
